Night-Bold Highway Robbery Several Cases of Housebreaking.
Thursday night last must have been a grand gala night with the petty criminals in and about the city, as no less than a half dozen cases of housebreaking are reported. The knights of the "jimmy" were as busy as bees, but although there were numerous attempts at burglary, in but one or two instances were the thieves successful, and then only to a moderate extent, as the booty they secured was of little value.

"DELMONICO" SALOON VISITED. At August Wiedebusch's "Delm Saloon, on Market street, adjoining the Register office, the thieves, some three or four in number, attempted to force ope the rear door of the bar room, which wa the marks of the "jimmy" in some was not locked, but as nothing in either any the covered booty appeared within their grasp. Several suspicious characters were observed in the viewes did their work.

ALSO LOISE'S AND SHEEKEY'S.

The front door of Julius Lobse's saloon, in Market, below Fourteenth street, was ried by theves, but withstood the attacks and upon it by the reasting the covered in the vient the first the covered booty appeared within their grasp. Several suspicious characters were observed in the vientity between 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning, about which time the thieves did their work.

ALSO LOISE'S AND SHEEKEY'S.

The front door of Julius Lobse's saloon, in Market, below Fourteenth street, was ried by thieves, but withstood the attacks and upon it by the reastly site than the first the cord of Jun Sheekey's you, and succeeded in breaking the to the front door of John Sheekey's you, and succeeded in breaking the to the fornt door of John Sheekey's you, and succeeded in breaking the to the fornt door of John Sheekey's you have the forn the point of a children's meeting, but is designed for parents, Sunday School officers and teachers and other friends of the cause.

Throw the lobster into boiling water, the move the meat from the bold the morning, about which time the thieves did their work.

ALSO LOISE'S AND SHEEKEY'S.

The front door of Julius Lobse's saloon, In Market, below Fourteenth street, was ried by thieves, but withstood the attacks and upon it by the reasels with a heavy interest the point of some of the fraternity, but with the color of Julius Lobse's and the color of Julius Lobse's all time sail round cakes, run the point of sail round cakes, run the point of some of the fraternity, but with the loss of the lobster.

The fourteenth street, was read the frate and allow it to cool for one hour. When it was read the frate and the four or five places. Failing in this, they managed for the occasion.

The Sunday Nees-Letter is now owned by the Messrs. Richard Robertson, Wm. S. Meek and G. H. Stull, the interest of Mr. John H. McFall having been purchased by his partners. Messrs. Robertson, Meek and Stull contemplate the purchase of a new press, besides bringing their paper out in a new dress at an early day.

The strangements was disturbed, it is probable the rascals were frightened off just when the coveted booty appeared within their grasp. Several suspicious characters were observed in the vicinity between 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning, about which time the thieves did their work.

HUNGRY TRIEVES. It seems that the thieves who were out Thursday night were hungry as well as thirsty. Their efforts to gain admittance thirsty. Their efforts to gain admittance to several saloons have already been recorded. Down at the residence of James recorded. Down at the residence of James Miller, on Eoff, near 23d street, they indulged in a regular free lunch at Mr. Miller's expense, and without his knowledge or consent. They broke in at the rear part of the house, and thoroughly cleared the kichen and cellar of everything in the way of eatables. The barking of a neighbor's dog frightened them off, or they might have remained for breakfast.

Mr. John Heil, residing at No. 1722 Wood street, returned home about halfpast nine o'clock Thursday evening, and within tan minutes afterwards heard some fellow working at a side door, eyidently trying to open it. As he started down stairs to investigate the noise, Mr. Heil heard the lock full from the door to the floor, and immediately afterwards the thief, hearing Mr. Heil's joutsteps, took to his heels and got out of the locality as quickly as A CITIZEN KNOCKED DOWN

The We are surprised to see so many still suffering with nedraligh and Rhoumatism, when they can be cured. We know the feeling which exists among very many—"that any medicine which is advertised must be a humbug." This may be true in some cases, but when we know of a remedy which has become so popular as Lawson's Curative, and we have such conclusive evidence of the good it has accumplished, it is more than folly not to make a trial of it, and satisfy yourselves that all the proprietors claim for it is true. In such diseases as Rheumatism, Neuraligia, Sciatica, Headache, Sore Throat, Lame Back, and Toothache, we can safely say that no remedy, either in physician is prescription or in proprietary form, has effected more cures than Lawson's Curative.
